Provisions

1. KSKQ reserves the right to edit underwritten announcements to ensure compliance with Federal Communications Commission regulations. Underwriters may change messages once per quarter.
2. Underwriters may not exercise any control over the programming, policies, shared programs, live remote broadcasting or any content produced and aired by KSKQ.
3. KSKQ reserves the right to decline underwriting for any reason.
4. KSKQ is licensed by the FCC as a non-commercial, educational FM broadcaster and complies with all FCC regulations applicable to such a license.
5. Programs may have more than one underwriter. KSKQ will make every effort to avoid airing underwriting from similar businesses during the same broadcast hour.
6. Underwriting fees are due at signing of this agreement. If renewal fees are not received before the expiration date, the underwriting agreement will expire on that date.
7. The broadcasting license is held by the Multicultural Association of Southern Oregon, a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization.
